Gibraltar Steps In To Support Home Furnishings Company’s Turnaround

Description

Gibraltar Business Capital prides itself on working closely with other financial and business professionals to help their clients gain financial security and build a foundation for future growth.

A turnaround consultant called in Gibraltar when his client’s bank proved less flexible than necessary while certain business improvements were in process. Gibraltar was able to respond with a $13 million asset-based line of credit to help the company move through the transition.

Read the full article here.

Category

1. News

Date Created
2020/01/23