Surviving the Pandemic – Strategic Planning for a Successful Recovery in the Retail and Hospitality Sectors

Description

Wednesday, February 10, 2021

2pm EST / 11am PST

Small businesses in the hospitality and retail sector were hit especially hard by the pandemic. For those that have survived, the focus will ultimately shift to building back.

Join Fox Partners Gordon Gouveia, Mark Hall and Carolyn Richmond – along with Kenneth Yager and Matthew Brash of Newpoint Advisors – for a discussion about how to navigate the road to recovery following the economic downturn caused by the pandemic. The webinar will provide options for managing financial distress, as well as:

- Cash management and operational strategies to emerge successfully from the pandemic
- Utilizing human capital in the new workplace
- Negotiating with lenders, landlords and critical vendors in and out of Chapter 11 reorganization
- Pre-bankruptcy planning and the keys to a successful financial workout, Chapter 11reorganization
