Description

A learning opportunity for business owners, corporate directors and officers, private equity professionals and others seeking to learn the ins and outs of dealing with a financially distressed company – whether running one, buying one, or trying to get paid by one.

Opportunity Amidst Crisis

A learning opportunity for business owners, corporate directors and others seeking to learn the ins and outs of dealing with a financially distressed company.

Webinar Details:

WHEN: June 23, 2020 from 9:00am-12:00pm CST

WHERE: Live Video Webinar + Unlimited (nontransferable) on-demand access for all registrants

WHAT:

- How companies and their directors and officers should conduct themselves when facing insolvency.
- Strategic options available to financially distressed companies (friendly foreclosure, assignments for the benefit of creditors, chapter 11).
- How to spot opportunities to purchase financially distressed companies & the various strategies and mechanisms available to do so.
- How to structure a deal (Equity v. assets? Hard v. soft assets? Going concern v. pieces).
- The vendors' perspective.
- How the impact of COVID-19 plays into the above.
